

Navigating the Minefield of SES/PSC

Supplemental Educational Services and Public School Choice are two of the most confusing portions of ESEA. This session will review the myriad of rules and regulations surrounding these two sections, and it will give districts a greater understanding of how to implement them. This session has been developed for districts and schools that are in improvement status, or that may go into improvement status.